

WORLD CONGRESS OF INTENSIVE & CRITICAL CARE

SEPTEMBER 16-19, 2025 · VANCOUVER, CANADA

SARAH CROWE

Sarah began her nursing career at Surrey Memorial Hospital in 2001 in the Emergency department before transitioning to critical care in 2004. She completed dual specialty certification in both Emergency and Critical Care Nursing. Sarah completed a Master of Nursing in 2010 and has held a variety of leadership roles in Fraser Health including charge nurse, educator and regional Clinical Nurse Specialist for Critical Care. She went on to complete a post-master's graduate diploma in Nurse Practitioner (family) in 2018, and then developed the Critical Care Nurse Practitioner role at Surrey Memorial Hospital. Sarah has now begun working on her PhD in Nursing at UBC. Her key areas of research and interest are in ICU survivorship, chronically critically ill patients, and supporting the mental health and practice of clinicians. She has received several research grants for her work. Sarah is currently the President of the Canadian Association of Critical Care Nurses, helping to provide a national voice for critical care nurses.
